

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

August 3, 1954

Dear Mr. Russell:

Please extend my warm greetings to the members of the National Counter Intelligence Corps Association on the occasion of your Seventh Annual Convention.

The job of implementing military security, both internal and external, is never finished. It must be treated as a continuing, routine, plugging task -- a type of vital maintenance work with occasional flashes of drama and excitement. It must be done by a dedicated, businesslike organization, making use of the most modern techniques. Just such an organization is the CIC, and I want to assure you veterans who have completed your military duties and returned to civil life that the CIC, from Holabird to Berlin to Seoul, is continuing at the same high level of competence and efficiency that you established a decade ago.

My best wishes go to all of you.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Russell:

I appreciate your recent letter inviting me to the Seventh Annual Convention of the Counter Intelligence Corps to be held in Chicago this coming summer.

I hope it will be possible for me to attend, but at the present time, I am unable to make any definite commitments. I am very pleased to ask President Eisenhower to give consideration to your request to address the Convention, and I am hopeful that he will be able to arrange his plans accordingly.

Thank you for your nice letter, and best wishes,

Sincerely,

Hugh Gregg

Dear Mr. Russell:

Thank you very much for the invitation to the Seventh Annual National Counter Intelligence Corps
Convention to be held in Chicago this summer.

Unless Congress is still in session, I expect to be in Texas and would not be able to attend. However, I am marking the date on my calendar to try to be with you if I am in Washington.

I am contacting the White House regarding the invitation which you extended President Eisenhower, and hope it will be possible for him to accept.

Sincerely yours,

PD:ew
